THE AUTOTYPE COMPANY

has REMOVED from Rathbone-place to suitable Premises, 531, OXFORD STREET, W.C. (twenty doors west of Maud's Library).

THE AUTOTYPE COMPANY are producers of Book Illustrations by the Autotype and Sawyer's Colotype Processes. Employed by the Trustees of the British Museum, Palaeographical, Numismatical, Royal Geographical, and other learned Societies.

Facsimiles of Medals and Coins, Ancient MSS., Paintings, Drawings, Sketches, Views and Portraits from Nature, &c.

Note.—The special advantages of the Autotype Process for Book Illustrations are:—

- 1st. The absolutely facsimile nature of the result.
- 2nd. Its Cheapness for Small Editions of 250, 500, &c.
- 3rd. The Prints being direct on the Paper, there is an absence of all cockling and that disagreeable effect inherent to all Mounted Prints.

* For Terms and Specimens apply to the Manager.

ENGLISH LETTERS.

FOUR CENTURIES of ENGLISH LETTERS:

a Selection of 350 Letters by 150 Writers from the period of the Paston Letters to the Present Time. Edited and Arranged by W. BAPTISTE SCOONES. Large crown 8vo, cloth, price 9s.

"No one who takes the slightest interest in English history, English literature, or in human nature can fail to receive increase of delight from the perusal of this volume. . . . Mr. Scoones's editorial apparatus is excellently calculated to assist the enjoyment of a singularly enjoyable book—a book that Chesterfield would, we think, have included among his ideal books for spare half-hours."
Pall Mall Gazette.

"Mr. Scoones has in truth given the world a rich store of English epistolary treasure, culled from all epochs—the Lancastrian to the Victorian age—and he has done the work of selection with rare patience and exquisitely good taste. . . . Those who read Mr. Scoones's work will rise from its perusal full of genuine respect for the author, as one who is not only a thorough worker, but who brings to his work the tact, taste, sympathy, and culture necessary for the fulfilment of the task he set himself to perform."

Daily Telegraph.

A SECOND EDITION is ready of Mr. R. D. BLACKMORE'S
NEW NOVEL,

MARY ANERLEY: a Yorkshire Story.

3 vols., crown 8vo, 31s. 6d.

"One of his happiest productions."—Saturday Review.
"A better novel we have not read for a long time. . . . Ray language, quaint conceits, rich humour, keen observation, and a talent for apt allusions are not every man's gifts."—Athenaeum.
"Mary Anerley" is not so much a story, though it is an admirably constructed story, as a fund of deep studies, of splendid pictures, of most amusing and graphic sketches of the quaintest, queerest people that ever lived themselves to be the salt of the earth."—Daily News.
"Mary Anerley" is Yorkshire throughout, racy of the soil."—Hull News.

Miss Alcott's New Story.—An appreciative critic writes as follows to the publishers of St. Nicholas:—"Do you good gentlemen realise what a capital serial Miss Alcott is giving the St. Nicholas boys and girls this year? If not, I would like to call your special attention to it. 'Jack and Jill' is decidedly the best story she has written, hardly excepting that first book which led her in triumph into the very heart of American and English home-life. Indeed, it closely resembles 'Little Women' in spirit, though it has a wider scope in action and treatment. It seems to me the strongest and tenderest current child-story in the language, full of rollicksome heartiness and beautiful sympathies—a story in which the girl-readers are honestly and safely delighted to meet live, manly boys; and boy-readers actually find themselves capable of being as interested in a jocular scene as in a tiger-hunt—in a bright-faced, noble girl as in a girlie." Stories, poems, seasonable and humorous, and pictures of fun and frolic appear here and there in the Number, and the pages devoted to very young readers, to "Jack-in-the-Pulpit's" remarks, the "Letter-box" and the "Hill-top-box" are filled with fresh, varied, and amusing items, stories, letters from the boys and girls, and puzzles.
